CC's FLOOR IS SHINING!

Many many thanks to parishioners, Estone, Chandi, Lubona and Niza who scrubbed and polished the church hall floor. It is absolutely gleaming. This is a wonderful example of synodality in progress where parishioners share their time, skills and talents for the good of the church community.

Thursday Café at CCs: wanted!!

There will be a basket at the back of the church for any small unwanted gifts you may have. They will be put to good use as prizes in our monthly raffle during our Afternoon Teas.

The Café will be open as usual on Thursday for soup & toastie. All welcome.

Eco Reflection: There is a nobility in the duty to care for creation through little daily actions, such as avoiding the use of plastic and paper, reducing water consumption, separating refuse, cooking only what can reasonably be consumed, showing care for other living beings etc.

Journeying Together in St Ninian's: Synodality

The Synod on Synodality will take place in Rome from 4-29 October, 2023. The Scottish representative at the Synod will be Bishop Brian Magee from the Diocese of Argyll and the Isles. Its aim will be to continue to bring to life the synodal process of walking together more decisively as one People of God, listening and learning from each other, sharing our many skills and talents and identifying which pathways the Spirit invites us to travel as we journey towards a new way of being church. M Ruddy
