Synodality: Journeying Together in Scotland
As a member of the Bishops of Scotland Synod Committee, I will attend a meeting this coming Wednesday at their offices in Airdrie. It will take the form of a Conversation in the Spirit. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss where Synodality is being implemented across Scotland and what proposals from the Final Report of the Synod Assembly in Rome which took place last October now need to be developed in our dioceses and local parishes. Please pray for a good outcome from this meeting. I will keep you updated.

January Eco Challenge.

Challenge yourself to a green resolution in 2025 🦋

The easiest way to reduce the amount of waste going to landfill is to reduce how much we consume in the first place.

Doing a 'no buy challenge' and only spending on the essentials for a week, month or even the year if you're feeling ambitious is a great way to challenge your habits and save a bit of money in the process. Are you willing to take up the challenge??

Civil Rights in America.

Following several enquiries from parishioners, I am offering to repeat the sessions ran a couple of years ago on the fascinating story of the Civil Rights Movement in America. Proposed 10 week Sessions will commence mid February in the church hall. Monday evenings 6.00-8.00 pm with a coffee break. To book a place please note your contact details on the form at the back of the church or email ; jamesashwood@gmail.com.
